

In 2-4 pages, write an essay in MLA format that uses at least four in-text citations and addresses the following:

What are three of the most significant ways that The Giver society differs from our own and in what ways are those differences significant?

For confident and talented writers:

As an option, if you have finished your futuristic novel for the quarter you may use it as a third component to your essay.